

C-9.19

All nodes should initially be black. If a node is black and its left and right sub trees have different heights, the node should be colored red (excluding the root).