C-10.4

First we sort the objects of A. Then we can walk through the sorted sequence and remove all duplicates. This takes $O(n \log n)$ time to sort and n time to remove the duplicates. Overall, therefore, this is an $O(n \log n)$-time method.