R-4.12

Two pointers are maintained as the list is traversed, curr points to the current element and prev points to it predecessor. Initially curr is the head of the list and prev is null. With each step set prev = curr and set curr = curr->next. When curr is null, return prev.